Candidate will be invited to the next available assessment if they successfully complete Stage One of the process. Candidate will be given a minimum of 3 weeks' notice to attend. Notice period is dependent on when candidate has passed Stage One and the date of the next assessment.				A candidate who fails their fitness test on first attempt will be offered one further attempt, at least 6 weeks later. Candidates who are unsuccessful at any stage of the process must wait 6 months before they can reapply.

The process in general can take anywhere from 6 – 9 months and is dependent on available assessment slots, vetting/clearances being achieved, success at fitness and medical and the next available course start date.

It is difficult to timeline each stage of the process, as this can vary candidate-by-candidate.
