They will also be required to undertake a 20-30 minute face-to-face suitability interview; this will take place on the same day that they attend their medical appointment. All these actions run concurrently and a candidate can be unsuccessful at any stage – notified accordingly.	References Phase 3 Police Vetting If unsuccessful at this stage – notified accordingly.	Contract Issued On-boarding/Hire actions Course start date notified
Once candidate has passed at Stage One, they will be invited to the next available medical/fitness assessment. Candidate will be given a minimum of 3 weeks' notice to attend.			A candidate who fails their fitness test on first attempt will be offered two further attempts, with at least 6 weeks between each attempt. Candidates who are unsuccessful at any stage of the process must wait 6 months before they can reapply.

The process in general can take anywhere from 6 – 9 months and is dependent on available assessment slots, vetting/clearances being achieved, success at fitness and medical and the next available course start date.

It is difficult to time line each stage of the process, as this can vary candidate by candidate.
